Term 2, Week 6
Student of the Week
Sophie Anderson

Sophie has been voted student of the week this week by staff and students and here are some of the reasons from her peers. Sophie listens to instructions, she is very responsible, extremely nice and for being kind to others. Last week teachers also noticed that Sophie was working hard to improve her high jump technique and although she hasn’t qualified this year she has made wonderful improvements ready for next year. Sophie has also been working hard to follow instructions, consistently seeks challenges in her learning and takes on teacher feedback which are qualities of a good Cassilis learner. Congratulations and keep up the fabulous work, Sophie!
LAST WEEK...

Last Wednesday students participated in the Simultaneous reading day. Virginia, from the library and a guest reader, read the story The Brothers Quibble and students enjoyed interacting and completing learning activities.
